

Template for writing an Annotated Bibliography

An annotated bibliography does contain a title page, but does not include a reference page as the citation is at the top of the paper. This is basically a two paragraph paper that incorporates level headings. First person should not be used.

EXAMPLE FORMAT:

Parkman, C. (2003). Faith and healing. The Case Manager, 14(1), 33-36. (Citation here)

Title Here (Centered on paper)

Summary (bolded, flush left on 1" margin)

The author of this article introduces the reader to..... (Summarize the article. Note only first sentence is indented). This should be a full paragraph.

Application (bolded, flush left on 1" margin)

As a nurse practicing in an acute care setting, it is important to recognize .....(Describe how it applies to nursing). This should be a full paragraph.
